Ongoing events

'Last of the Red Hot Lovers'

7:30 p.m. Friday-Saturday and 2 p.m. Sunday through Jan. 26 at Arts Center Theatre, Marco Town Center, 1089 N. Collier Blvd., Marco Island. Neil Simon's witty comedy about a middle-aged man who wants to chuck being married, overworked and overweight to join the sexual revolution. He quickly learns revolutions are full of explosives. $40. marcoislandart.org or 239.784.1186

'The Play That Goes Wrong'

Various times Wednesdays-Saturdays through Feb. 16 at Kizzie Theatre at the Sugden, 701 Fifth Ave. S., Naples. The Cornley University Drama Society's newest production, The Murder at Haversham Manor, starts to go wrong before the curtain even opens — and goes on a fast ride downhill from there, with falling sets, botched lines, a corpse that keeps resurrecting and more. $50-$55. naplesplayers.org or 239.263.7990

'Dial M for Murder'

Various times Tuesdays-Sundays through Feb. 6 at Gulfshore Playhouse, 100 Goodlette-Frank Road S., Naples. Frederick Knott's edge-of-seat thriller, known in the U.S. from the tense Alfred Hitchcock film, was originally a play, and it returns, even more gripping live, with a few surprises. $39-$119. gulfshoreplayhouse.org or 239.261.7529
